

Year 10 Phase Test Schedule

You will have a phase tests throughout the year to check that you are making good progress to keep you on your flight path.

Phase test will take place during your lesson and will be out of approximately 50 marks.

You will have 5 phase tests in English and Maths and 2 phase tests in all other subjects. You will also have PPEs (Pre-public exams) for all of your subjects in the exam hall in the final term of the year.

In the table below you will find the 2 week window during which your phase test for each subject will take place. You will be set revision homework before your phase test but you should also be carrying out your own revision to prepare for the tests.
